

Boasting an impressive 200 feet of frontage on Biscayne Bay in East Edgewater, Missoni Baia is a one-of-a-kind work of high-performance architecture. Designed by internationally acclaimed Hani Rashid of Asymptote Architecture and developed by OKO Group under the leadership of Vladislav Doronin, one of Europe's most successful developers, this visionary architectural landmark is influenced by Minimalist art and driven by forward-thinking engineering. Missoni Baia offers a residential experience of unparalleled quality, as distinctive as the aesthetic of Missoni, one of the world's most legendary fashion houses, and inspired by the same pioneering spirit of technical innovation and design excellence. New York designer Paris Forino envisioned the tower's 249 elegantly crafted one- to five-bedroom residences and curated the Missoni fabrics, furnishings, and artworks that complement Asymptote's modern architectural design. The building offers expansive amenities unrivaled in Miami—including an Olympic-sized pool and one of the city's largest and most elegantly appointed spas—and a richly layered landscape designed by Enzo Enea. Missoni Baia sets a new standard for quality and sophistication in East Edgewater.

THE MISSONI LIFESTYLE

One of the most recognizable and well-respected fashion labels in the world, Missoni embodies a passion for visionary design, quality, and innovation. Missoni Baia perfectly captures the Missoni family's joyful spirit and infuses the entire experience of the building with their relaxed sense of luxury.

EAST EDGEWATER

A residential enclave nestled between Biscayne Bay and the Design District and Wynwood Art District, East Edgewater is Miami's most desirable, up-and-coming neighborhood—close to beaches, luxury shopping, and fine dining. The Arsht Center for the Performing Arts, the Frost Museum of Science, and the Pérez Art Museum Miami are all nearby, as are Downtown and Brickell, The Bright Line Rail at MiamiCentral Station, AmericanAirlines Arena, and Marlins Park baseball stadium. Miami International Airport is approximately a 12-minute drive away.
