MIAMI WORLDCENTER

Developed by Naftali Group

FOREWORD

Welcome to JEM. Over three decades, my team and I have developed the most sought-after residences in New York City and throughout the world. As our inaugural residential property in Miami, JEM continues that proud tradition.

We have collaborated with the world’s top talents in architecture and design to create a jewel of a building—one whose quality, design, and artistry are unlike anything else in South Florida. A product of our passion and dedication, JEM is a true collector’s edition. Its peerless craftsmanship and construction are guaranteed to stand the test of time.

At Naftali Group, our work is a tribute to the greatest global cities. A true international capital, Miami is abundant with culture, flavor, beaches, creativity, shopping, and attractions. JEM is at the heart of that signature magic. Located at the focal point of Worldcenter, Miami’s most iconic new neighborhood, it is an urban oasis just one block from Biscayne Bay.

We invite you to discover JEM.

Miami's New Era of Design

JEM stands as a remarkable architectural marvel. Crafted by the renowned Miami-based firm Arquitectonica, this majestic tower soars to a height of 770 feet above sea level. Drawing inspiration from the neighboring ocean landscape, its silhouette mirrors the wavelike rhythm, embodying the spirit of innovation that defines this vibrant city.

Within its walls, the interiors of JEM unfold as a masterpiece, envisioned by the creative masterminds of Naftali Group and the esteemed Rockwell Group. A world unto itself, the building houses the illustrious JEM Club—an exclusive private haven boasting an unparalleled array of city-centric amenities. Ascending further, a series of luxurious residences starting on the 45th floor, replete with sweeping wraparound terraces, seamlessly merge indoor and outdoor spaces, offering a truly opulent living experience.

An extension of the private residences, it is complete with ideal spaces in which to relax, socialize, and fully enjoy time spent at home—a true complement to the endless opportunities available in the city beyond.

Surrounding the infinity pool, private cabanas are perfect for lounging and enjoying a resort-style experience with friends and family.
