

RESIDENCES BY

 ARMANI / CASA

Architecture by César Pelli

Through his Armani/Casa Interior Design Studio, Mr. Armani brings his inimitable sensibility and talent for understated elegance to interior design. Rich textiles, a palette of softly dramatic tones, and sensual textures create an atmosphere of refined elegance throughout the lobby and common areas where ambient lighting and artfully arranged furnishings offer a relaxing ambiance for conversation.

Pelli Clarke Pelli's contemporary glass tower appears at one with the crystal clear water of the Atlantic Ocean, while transparent terraces allow you to step into a dreamlike space suspended between earth and sky. Along the oceanfront, duplex bungalows with dramatic glass window walls and intimate private outdoor spaces open directly to pristine beaches.

While sweet ocean breezes and soft tropical sunlight enhance the unrivalled elegance of the residential interiors, floor-to-ceiling sheer glass windows offer incomparable views over countless miles of soft white sand and turquoise water stretching to the horizon. Spacious terraces have been designed to create a seamless expansion of living space, affording a true outdoor lifestyle in complete privacy.

Nestled between sophisticated Bal Harbour and elegant Aventura, the tower enjoys a prime location in the intimate seaside city of Sunny Isles Beach, South Florida's new address for ultra-luxury oceanfront living. With two and a half miles of premier beachfront in your backyard, an idyllic setting is created for a new kind of lifestyle, where your options extend as far as the ocean views outside of your window.

The private oceanfront oasis is conveniently located near a few of the finest and most recognized high-end shopping destinations in the world, exquisite dining options and exclusive nightspots, as well as first-class art galleries and museums. For ease of travel, Miami International Airport and Fort Lauderdale Airport are both located within less than twenty minutes away.
